FROM THE HEADMISTRESS'S DESK

Dear Parents,

There is a particular kind of joy that fills our corridors when children return after a long summer – a little taller, a little tanned, and full of stories waiting to be told. June and July brought that joy back to us in full measure, as our campus stirred once more with the laughter, chatter, and quiet concentration that only young learners can bring.

Across these months, our endeavours were woven around six guiding threads — CREATIVITY , CONFIDENCE, COORDINATION, TEAMWORK, AWARENESS , RESPONSIBILITY

We also paused to celebrate and reflect through several meaningful observances. The environmental initiatives gently nudged our young citizens to look upon the Earth not as something inherited, but something entrusted to their care. Through all of this, our endeavour remains steady and clear: that our students should not merely learn about the world, but learn to step into it with awareness, empathy, and a sense of responsibility that will serve them long after they leave our gates.

Warm regards,
Ms Paras Rathod
Headmistress

MESSAGE TO MY STUDENTS

Dear Students,

Learning is not limited to the books or textbooks that you carry to school.

Learning can be anything, and it can take place anywhere and in any form. It is not only about scoring good marks but also becoming better human beings. The kind of person you are, the way you behave with others, how sympathetic and helpful you are, and how respectfully you treat people—these qualities truly reflect your education.

Life is full of challenges, with its ups and downs. Therefore, you should always have the courage and confidence to face every challenge that comes your way. Remember that success does not come overnight. It takes time, patience, hard work, dedication and passion. You may make mistakes along the way, and that is perfectly okay.

Making a mistake is not the real failure; failing to learn from it is.

Finally, I want to encourage each one of you to dream big, work hard, stay positive and always believe in yourself. Believe in your abilities, trust your journey, and remember that with determination and the right attitude, you can overcome challenges and achieve your goals.

So, keep learning, keep exploring, keep smiling, and keep shining!

Best wishes,

Jyoti Shah
